

Seeking to implement the Protocol of Co-operation signed between Camões, Institute for Cooperation and Language, I.P (Camões – Instituto da Cooperação e da Língua I.P.), hereinafter briefly referred to as Camões I.P., and the General Directorate for Books, Archives and Libraries, (Direção-Geral do Livro, dos Arquivos e das Bibliotecas), hereinafter briefly referred to as DGLAB, which establishes the principles for a partnership to promote their shared purpose of promoting of Portuguese literature at international level, as defined in Council of Ministers’ Resolution No. 70/2016, of the 22nd of November, the following Rules for creating a sole Programme to support the translation and publication abroad of works written in Portuguese, by Portuguese authors or by authors from Portuguese-speaking countries in Africa and from East Timor, are hereby established.

Therefore, pursuant to the Third Clause of the mentioned Protocol of Co-operation, the following Rules are hereby approved:

RULES OF THE
PROGRAMME SUPPORTING THE TRANSLATION AND PUBLICATION ABROAD OF
WORKS OF PORTUGUESE AND PORTUGUESE-SPEAKING AUTHORS IN AFRICA
AND FROM EAST TIMOR

CHAPTER I

General Rules

Article 1

Objective

These Rules establish the legal framework for the Programme to Support the Translation and Publication abroad of the Works written in Portuguese, by Portuguese authors or by authors from Portuguese-speaking countries in Africa and from East Timor.

Article 2

Scope

- 1 - LATE is established to support the translation and publication abroad of works written in Portuguese, by Portuguese authors or by authors from Portuguese-speaking countries in Africa and from East Timor, by providing financial support and scholarships for translators.
- 2 - LATE includes literary essays, fiction, poetry, plays and children’s and young people’s books.

- 3 - The internationalization of Portuguese publications in the field of illustration and comic strips is supported through a special programme created and managed by DGLAB, in accordance with its mission and attributions.
- 4 - Publications made in Brazil are supported through a special programme created and managed by DGLAB, in accordance with its mission and attributions.

Article 3

Purposes

LATE is established for the following purposes:

- a)* To stimulate knowledge and the international dissemination of Portuguese-language bibliographical heritage and its authors.
- b)* To offer a set of resources and archives to Libraries in Portugal or abroad, Chairs, Portuguese Language Centres, Cultural Centres or Universities, in particular, those which have signed Co-operation Protocols with Camões, I.P.
- c)* To ensure that Portuguese language works and authors are represented in the international publishing markets.
- d)* To articulate the dissemination of Portuguese language authors and works with the involvement in events taking place in the course of international book fairs, literary festivals and other international relevant events.

Article 4

Beneficiaries

The direct beneficiaries of this Support Programme are national and international publishing houses who submit applications concerning the publication, whether in print or in digital format, of works that are comprised in the LATE Programme, intended for audiences and markets abroad.

Article 5

Eligibility

- 1 - The works that are deemed eligible for LATE shall be works of poetry, fiction, literary essays, plays and youth and children's literature, provided that:
 - a)* They are written in Portuguese and by Portuguese authors, by authors from Portuguese-speaking African countries or authors from Timor;
 - b)* They are translated directly and in full, into any other language.

- 5 - The outcome of LATE, as decided by the Committee, shall be recorded in the minutes of the Technical Committee's meeting.
- 6 - All applications that are approved shall be disclosed publicly.

CHAPTER II
